

“Education Spring in Imereti”

ATSU, 10th corpus, PBL building, Kutaisi

30 April 2015, 10 am

Organized by: ATSU & DTMU, Georgia

Satellite Symposium

„Undergraduate Medical Education: Current State-of-the-Art in Georgia and Perspectives of its Development”

Session 1

Current Aspects of Undergraduate MD Programs/Curricula Modernization

Session Chairman and Moderators: ATSU, DTMU

Introduction: Review of the Issue considering International Experience in the Field

- 1) Planning of Curricula Modernization
 - ATSU Experience
 - DTMU Experience
- 2) Modernized curricula
 - ATSU Experience
 - DTMU Experience
- 3) Characteristics of Implementation and Exploitation of the Modernized Curricula
 - ATSU Experience
 - DTMU Experience

Session 2

Problem-Based Learning (PBL) – as the “Tool” for training of Medical Doctors

Session Chairman and Moderators: ATSU, DTMU

Introduction: Why Should You Be Interested in Problem Based Learning?

- 1) PBL Tutorials: Technical and Academic Issues of Teaching and Learning
 - Experience of ATSU in PBL Tutoring
 - Experience of DTMU in PBL Tutoring
- 2) Current Issues of PBL Cases` Adaptation and Creating of New Ones

Session 3

Experience of DTMU Medical Education Center (MEC): Current Issues of Medical Education in Teaching and Research

Session Chairman and Moderators: ATSU, DTMU

- 1) Presentation of DTMU MEC: Aims, objectives, opportunities for cooperation between universities in medical education issues.
- 2) Presentation of a teaching course developed by DTMU MEC: “What it means to be modern Medical Educator”

For more information please contact: nanashavlakadze@hotmail.com